

FRENCH

GCSE

OPTION SUBJECT – CATEGORY A (BACCALAUREATE SUBJECT)

EXAMINATION BOARD: AQA

SPECIFICATION CODE: 8658

WHY TAKE THIS COURSE?

A different language is a different vision of life. Learning another language helps to develop another way to think and also a better understanding of the English language.

You will develop the skills to communicate with others both by spoken and written means, which in turn will improve your social and thinking skills and your ability to cope with the unexpected.

With English no longer the most spoken first language in the world, a second or even third language is a great asset and not just on holiday.

A foreign language opens many doors in life and many career paths such as in international companies, the armed forces, performing arts and of course the leisure and tourism sector.
